Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your mail and request to arrange a meeting between the Executive Vice-President, Mr Frans Timmermans and FoodDrinkEurope [REDACTED].
Mr Timmermans would be pleased to meet with FoodDrinkEurope [REDACTED] on Monday, 27 April 2020 from 11:30 – 12:15 (45 min).

I copy Mr Visek, the Cabinet member responsible for the preparation of the meeting, in case of any questions.

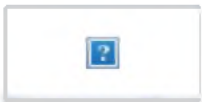

Please don't hesitate to contact me regarding logistics for the meeting.

Kind regards,

[REDACTED]

Dear Lukas,

Many thanks for coming back to us and for trying to arrange a meeting between [REDACTED] and Executive Vice-President Timmermans.

Please find below two alternative dates on our side when (at least) our [REDACTED] would be free:

24 February (ideally as of 14.00)

27 April (ideally PM)

Could you please let me know if, by any chance, one of these dates is possible on your side?

Many thanks in advance!

Best regards,

[REDACTED]

Subject: RE: Request for a meeting with FoodDrinkEurope Board members

Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you very much for the invitation, it is with regret that the Executive Vice-President Timmermans is not available on 25 February (and on 17 June for your next board meeting either).

As discussed, I am happy to look into alternatives – please let me know.

All the best,

Lukas

Subject: Request for a meeting with FoodDrinkEurope [REDACTED]

Dear Sir or Madam,

Following our letter sent to Executive Vice-President Timmermans on 3rd December, FoodDrinkEurope [REDACTED] would very much like to invite Executive Vice-President Timmermans to address our Board at its next meeting.

Our Board, which brings together the CEOs of 17 large, medium and small European food and drink manufacturing companies, will meet in the morning of 25th February.

Permanent invitees to our Board meetings (CEOs of some of the world's largest food manufacturing companies) will also be present.

It would be a great honor for us if Executive Vice-President Timmermans accepts our invitation and we look forward to hearing from you.

Best regards,
