Dear Aleks,

Hopefully you'll enjoyed a well-deserved holiday.

Following-up on my email just before the summer break I wonder whether you would have any time this week or next for a brief call to discuss the emerging Sustainable Biomethane Alliance?

Kind regards,

[REDACTED]

Subject: Sustainable Biomethane Alliance

Dear Aleks,

You must be glad that the 'Fit for 55' package is out, great day yesterday!

A while back we discussed the necessary scale-up of biomethane to reach climate targets while strengthening rural economies.

The Gas for Climate group of EU gas TSOs and biomethane associations finds that sustainable biomethane 'punches below its weight' relative to its potential and societal benefits. We therefore gathered a group of large European companies with ambitions to scale up the consumption, production and transport of biomethane, including

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED], [REDACTED] The emerging Alliance aims to mobilise the supply chain to help scaling up biomethane, and to engage in a dialogue with policy makers.

We look to launch the Alliance by the end of November in a meeting with [REDACTED] [REDACTED] After COP-26, yet before the EU Gas decarbonisation package. I've discussed the initiative with DG Ener services ([REDACTED]) and would like to also update you on our work. It would be great to get your feedback.

Would you have time for a brief call after your summer break towards the end of August?

Kind regards,
