

Meeting with Discord

Discord presented their company, business model (a mix of subscriptions/free), content moderation approach, encryption practice - and the choice of name Discord

They explained their ideas and tools for age verification and the approach of the moderation academy to empower users and especially children to become moderators

They support Europe's efforts in digital regulation and are organising themselves for compliance