Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you very much for your swift response.

We have indeed another opportunity in the near future. Jan Klawitter will again come to Brussels on 30 June – 1 July.
Would there be an opportunity for a meeting then?

Kind regards,

[REDACTED]

Subject: meeting request on behalf of Anglo American on critical raw materials - week 23 June

Dear [redacted]

I am writing to you on behalf of Anglo American, an international diversified mining company with a focus on transition minerals, including copper and high grade iron ore, and a growing footprint in the EU.

[redacted] will be in Brussels from 23-25 June and would be delighted to meet you on that occasion.

[redacted] would like to discuss Anglo American's activities in Europe and beyond, how they could contribute to Europe's climate objectives and how they address social and environmental challenges. In particular they would like to discuss Anglo American's Sakatti project in Finland, a copper mine that has gained strategic project status under the CRMA, but also talk about other resources that could contribute to the EU's energy transition.

Could you please let us know if a meeting between 23 and 25 June could be possible.

Please do not hesitate should you require any further information.

Kind regards,

[redacted]
