As outlined in the proposal

5. Reasons why the partner is suitable to play this role:

Associação ILGA Portugal is the oldest and the largest Portuguese NGO striving for equality and against discrimination based on sexual orientation and gender identity. It is partly funded by the Portuguese Government and it is represented in the Council of the Commission for Citizenship and Gender Equality, the Portuguese Equality Body that deals with discrimination based on gender, sexual orientation and gender identity. We have a large outreach among the LGBT community: among several projects, we organize the main Pride event in Portugal and we run an LGBT Center with several support services and a documentation center.

After having lobbied successfully towards hate crime legislation that addresses homophobic motivations, we started working with the Police and prepared a proposal of "Good Practices for the Relationship Between Police forces and LGBT People" (<http://www.ilga-portugal.pt/pdfs/BoasPraticas.pdf>) and subsequently held a meeting with the Minister of Internal Affairs who agreed to implement some of our proposals (<http://www.ilga-portugal.pt/noticias/20071009.htm>). We recently hosted an international Conference with a panel devoted to Security and Justice (<http://www.ilga-portugal.pt/conferencia2009/>) with the participation of the officer in charge of police training. We have also conducted training of police authorities at the local level.
