Hi [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] and [REDACTED] would be happy to start the meeting 15 minutes earlier at 11:45am.

We'll have to check with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] but worse case, they would join the group at noon as originally envisaged.

We look forward to welcoming you on Monday.

Best,
[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED],

There's a chance that our group may arrive at the US Chamber 15min early on Monday. Would that be okay? If your team is unavailable, we'd be happy to sit in a small room and wait until noon.

Thanks,
[REDACTED]

Hi [REDACTED],

Indeed, I can confirm that [REDACTED] attended a light lunch at the Chamber from 12:00pm – 12:45 pm on Monday the 30th, as [REDACTED] also just confirmed.

As noted, I will gladly serve at the point of contact on logistics for the meeting.

Could you please indicate how many people will join Ditte on your side including their names and affiliations, and if anyone in the party has any dietary restrictions to be aware of for when I arrange the lunch?

We look forward to hosting you.

Best,

Hi [REDACTED]

Just a quick clarification: did you mean lunch 12pm-12:45pm on the 30th? Ditte has another engagement shortly after 1pm.

Thank you,

Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for the offer of a roundtable, but I understand that this visit Ditte only seeks to have a conversation with Chamber staff. Would you be available to meet on October 30th 11:30am-12pm, either at the EU Delegation or the US Chamber? The other option would be to share a light lunch at the US Chamber 12pm-12:45pm.

Best regards,

Dear [REDACTED]

We look forward to your response. Just to note – a third option might be to organize a meeting with relevant Chamber staff, followed by a company roundtable with Director General Jørgensen.

All the best,

Hi [REDACTED],

Thank you for the quick response. I'm checking with Ditte's team on whether to meet just Chamber staff or your member companies as well, and will let you know as soon as I hear back.

Best,

[REDACTED]

Many thanks for your message.

We would be delighted to meet Director General Jørgensen during her visit at the end of this month. Would she like to meet only with Chamber staff or would she be willing to participate in an off the record roundtable with some of our member company executives? We are happy to arrange either. We'll need to check on room availability, but at present October 30 looks like the better day. Let us know her preference and we will get something set up!

Best regards,

Dear [REDACTED]

The European Commission's Director General for Energy, Ditte Juul Jørgensen, will be in DC this October 30th and 31st for meetings with USG and the energy industry. During this visit, she would like to speak with you and your colleagues at the US Chamber of Commerce regarding the Inflation Reduction Act and clean technologies. Would your team have some times during those two days for a meeting?

Thanks, and kind regards,
