Dear Mr Samson,

Dear Diederik,

Hope you and the entire team are doing well. It continues to be very busy and the times still uncertain but we are encouraged and optimistic as we look forward to a reboot in EU-US relations.

I am writing to you to ask whether you would be available for a short video call in the coming weeks. I would be very pleased to introduce you to [REDACTED] [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] and [REDACTED] who has recently replaced [REDACTED] and also to present you briefly our work on economic recovery.

Following-up on our previous exchange (see below), I would also be pleased to further discuss with you the possibility of a meeting with Executive Vice-President Timmermans and our membership in 2021 and bounce off some ideas that we have for such engagement.

If you agree, I will ask my colleague [REDACTED] to reach out to [REDACTED] to see if we can find a timeslot.

With best regards,

[REDACTED]

Subject: RE: AmCham EU - thanks and invite/follow-up

Dear Diederik,

As AmCham EU [REDACTED], I also wanted to thank you again for the very open & constructive discussion we had one week ago.

We will be pleased to welcome FVP Timmermans for example in September after the State of the Union (or before if best for you) to have his views on the GD implementation and its challenges / where business can help.

Indeed US companies in Europe – at least our members that are innovative companies - are supporting the Green Deal with sustainable technologies.

In this respect, I take this opportunity to inform you that as 3M, I had a fruitful meeting with Yvon Slingenberg & her team yesterday on how more ambitious legislation can help driving innovation – the foreseen recast of the f-gas regulation in 2021 can be a great opportunity for achieving the GD objectives (at least carbon reduction) as technology is now available and can be deployed in Europe.

Please feel free to contact us if any question.

Thank you & I look forward to a great cooperation.

Best regards,

Subject: [EXTERNAL] AmCham EU - thanks and invite/follow-up

Dear Diederik,

On behalf of AmCham EU, I would like to thank you once for the constructive meeting we had earlier this week. It was great to talk to you. We were pleased to see that there is room for collaboration and we look forward to engaging with you and your colleagues in the coming weeks, months and years!

As mentioned during the meeting we would be pleased and honoured to welcome Executive Vice-President Timmermans to one of our online events (ie. a Town Hall or Plenary session) after the summer break. We have introduced this as a members-only platform and have engaged successfully and productively with several members of the Commission this way so far (just yesterday with EVP Dombrovskis). We would suggest September as you also proposed and we would be delighted to send a more formal invite and propose some dates. Our online event/meeting platform would provide EVP Timmermans with an opportunity to engage with senior representatives from American companies operating and investing in Europe who would be honoured to hear his views on how business can help deliver the Commission's priorities in the next years, including, of course, the renovation wave; clean energy and transport and to discuss this with him interactively.

As a further follow-up to the meeting, I am sending to you the link to our COVID-19 platform. AmCham EU has developed this new public portal to share information and resources on the COVID-19 pandemic. The portal brings together updates from the EU institutions and Member States, as well as insights into the business response to the crisis. It also features initiatives from member companies to support local communities in Europe and globally through these unprecedented times. Moreover, AmCham EU has launched a campaign to highlight the importance of EU cooperation and solidarity that aims to support the efforts of the EU institutions to coordinate a European-wide response to COVID-19.

I would also like to share with you our statement on the Next Generation EU plan in support of this unprecedented measures as well as our brand new first Economic Recovery paper on Overcoming COVID-19: Laying the foundation for a more resilient EU aiming to support policymakers throughout the entire recovery phase and to ensure that Europe does not stall on its road to recovery.

Finally, on behalf of us all, I would like to express our gratitude to your team for all their help with the organisation of the meeting. As also mentioned, we would be delighted to invite you, yourself, to one of our virtual Board meetings. I will follow-up with you separately on this.

On behalf of the entire membership of AmCham EU, I wish you and your colleagues good health. We look forward to engaging constructively with you and your team in the future.

Best regards,

Chair AmChams in Europe
