Dear [REDACTED],

I hope you are well.

[REDACTED] will be in Brussels on the 22nd of November, he lands at 09:00 am (with Ryanair).

I would like to know whether Mr. Hololei would have time anytime before 1 pm ([REDACTED] speaks on the Eurocontrol event from 2.15 pm) for a meeting.
Topics: Developments since the last meeting, update about Wizz Air, our view on Fit for 55, upcoming challenges in the industry.

Many thanks for your kind reply.

Best regards,

Dear [REDACTED],

I hope you are fine and wish you a Happy New Year!

Regarding next week's online meeting with Mr Hololei may I kindly ask if we could move the meeting for 15 to 30 minutes and start at either 10.15 or 10.30? Mr Hololei has a phone call starting at 09.30 and I don't want him to be late for the meeting with Wizzair. In case that's not possible we keep the time and hope that Mr Hololei finishes his call by 10am.

Kind regards,

██████████

Subject: Slot Regulation - Wizz Air proposal to the European Commission

Importance: High

Dear Mr. Hololei, Dear [REDACTED],

Please kindly allow us to share with you our letter and views on the proposal for slot regulation.

We would like to highlight that we appreciate the more market-driven approach in the proposal.

As described in the attachment, we would like to propose a distinction between hub and point-to-point airports due to the different models and pace of recovery.

On behalf of [REDACTED], may I ask for a meeting with Mr. Hololei and [REDACTED] to discuss the topic further?

I remain at your disposal.

Best regards,

[REDACTED]
