Karl-Theodor,

Great to hear from you. I just landed in London after a very long trip that began in [REDACTED] and then took me to [REDACTED], [REDACTED], and [REDACTED]. Basically, the most totalitarian country, the least connected country, the newest country, the poorest country and the most corrupt country :)

[REDACTED] and I would love to get together [REDACTED] I get back to the US this week and she is finishing up a case, so maybe early February?

Peter, Andrea, great to meet you. Always happy to chat and Karl-Theodor, thanks for the introduction.

Best,
 [REDACTED]

 Dear [REDACTED]

I hope this message finds you very well and I wish you a very happy and joyful New Year. I applaud you for your trip to [REDACTED].

I'll be back from Europe on the weekend and it would be great to see you again soon. [REDACTED] if you are around within the next weeks. On very short notice, Sunday evening would be an option, if you (both) feel like [REDACTED].

I have also put the two leading experts in the EU Commission, Peter Power and Andrea Glorioso, who are responsible for the EU's "No Disconnect Strategy" on Cc. As I have explained at our last meeting I am convinced that it would make perfect sense to connect you all to explore steps of a fruitful exchange of views and potential ways of collaboration.

Peter and Andrea,
 I think I don't have to introduce [REDACTED] who is the head of [REDACTED] and one of the most interesting and inspiring minds I have met last year.

Gentlemen, I think it would be a good idea to get in touch with each other and to have a fruitful conversation.

Hi Peter and Andrea,

I'm back from [REDACTED] and would be happy to set up a phone meeting to see where our work overlaps at your convenience. I'm adding [REDACTED] to the thread as we've brought him on board to head the [REDACTED] part of our human rights group.

Best,
[REDACTED]

Thank you so much, Karl-Theodor. Peter and Andrea, I'd be delighted to speak with you about potential to work together. I'm traveling in [REDACTED] without much access to Internet until the 30th, so let's definitely be in touch then.

Best,
