Subject: Meeting request // Front of Pack Nutrition Labelling // Group BEL

Dear [Redacted],

I am writing to you on behalf of Group BEL, a French agri-food industry whose iconic cheeses, The Laughing Cow, Mini Bahybel, Boursin and Kiri, are sold in more than 100 countries around the world.

Committed to the deployment of a sustainable growth model, BEL's mission is to defend healthier and more responsible food for all, in line with the objectives of the "Farm to Fork" strategy.

To achieve this, the Group offers a range of products, in the form of portions, combining pleasure, nutritional benefits and quality ingredients by adapting each time the recipes to the specific needs and expectations of consumers.

In light of the current debates on the issue of the front-of-pack nutrition labelling, [Redacted], [Redacted], and [Redacted], [Redacted] would be honoured to meet with you (by videoconference) to present the BEL Group and its nutritional commitments and specificities, during a meeting scheduled at your earliest convenience.

We thank you in advance for the attention which you will bring to our request.

Best regards,
