COMPROMISE AMENDMENTS

COMP 1 on EU-Georgia relations

Covers AMs 15 (Kubilius), 16 (Stefanuta), 75 (Glucksmann)
AMs that fall: 14

Paragraph 1

1. Welcomes the continuous deepening of EU-Georgia relations and the firm support that Georgia's chosen path of European and Euro-Atlantic integration enjoys across the political spectrum and in society; acknowledges the progress in implementing comprehensive reforms [16 Stefanuta], which has made Georgia a key partner of the EU in the region, and reiterates the need to continue implementing and monitoring [16 Stefanuta] reforms under the Association Agreement (AA) and the Deep and Comprehensive Free Trade Area; reminds that enhanced cooperation and EU assistance are based on the principle of "more for more" and [75 Glucksmann] conditional on continued reform progress on, in particular, democracy and rule of law, including checks and balances in the institutions, independence of judiciary and electoral reform [15 Kubilius, 75 Glucksmann];

COMP 2 on territorial integrity

INTA's position in form of a letter to AFET report on Annual implementing report on the EU association agreement with Georgia

(INTA's Rapporteur Markéta GREGOROVÁ)

The Committee on International Trade calls on the Committee on Foreign Affairs, as the committee responsible, to incorporate the following suggestions into its motion for a resolution:

1. Highlights that Georgia continues to be the European Union's key partner in the region; notes that the EU is the biggest trading partner for Georgia representing 27% share of its total trade; Celebrates Georgia's 20th anniversary as a Member of the World Trade Organization (WTO) on 14 June 2020; considers Georgia to be an ally in its call for enhanced multilateralism;
2. Welcomes the continued good cooperation on trade and economic relations between the EU and Georgia, and acknowledges the important and growing partnership between the two parties;
3. Welcomes what has been achieved under the Single Support Framework, and encourages fast and effective implementation of the new assistance programmes, which focus on energy efficiency, solid waste management and water supply and sanitation;
4. Calls for greater and more committed efforts in the approximation of rule of law standards, in particular those aiming at strengthening an independent judiciary, reform of the general prosecutors' office as well as ensuring transparency, international standards and merit-based criteria when naming high-level judges for the Supreme Court of Georgia and other high-level judiciary institutions, which is a necessary condition for a mature market economy;
5. Calls on the Commission to continuously search for ways to improve the trade relationship and provide technical assistance to Georgia and to further deepen the economic integration through continued support for the full implementation of the current DCFTA;
6. Recalls that the EU-Georgia Association Agreement/DCFTA has an objective of gradual integration of Georgia to the Single Market; calls on the European Commission to be more vocal in setting the target of the access to the Single Market for Georgia and step up initiatives aimed at deeper sectoral integration with a view to achieve more policy convergence of Georgia with the EU and make the deliverables of bilateral cooperation more visible and measurable for both sides;
7. Encourages the continuation of the fight against corruption and state capture, as well as the promotion of public administration reform and modernisation, decentralisation, and good governance, which would further trade integration between Georgia and the EU;
8. Calls for enhanced cooperation in the digital economy and continued improvements in connectivity which facilitate e-commerce and digital trade, as well as climate action and environmental protection, and acknowledges the efforts made in this regard;
9. Recalls that decent work is an integral part of sustainable economic development; Welcomes the steps undertaken by Georgia for full enforcement of labour legislation; Encourages the government of Georgia to continue extensive labour legislation reform so as to ensure better regulation of working conditions including continued improvements in labour inspections and social dialogue; in particular highlights the need to amend the Labour Safety Law in order to set up a fully-fledged inspection system and proper anti-discrimination mechanism to explicitly monitor labour rights and systematically verify any workplace hazards, to include a modern anti-corruption mechanism and to ratify all respective ILO Conventions; encourages the involvement of civil society organisations and trade unions in these reforms, in light of their importance for workers' and social rights in Georgia;

10. Urges the European Commission to support Georgia in better EU market access and calls for Georgian and EU businesses to further utilize the benefits of the DCFTA, and in particular for SMEs as the backbone of the economy, and regional business to develop closer bilateral trade links, to thereby improve Georgia's trade balance with the EU and strengthen its macro-financial stability; notes in particular the importance of continued and adequate EU financial and technical support for harmonisation of standards to ensure maximum opportunities for economic integration; urges greater progress in particular on reforming Rules of Origin;
11. Calls on the Commission to support full implementation of the DCFTA through coordinated assistance, to promote sustainable economic development, and support structural reforms in the economic system, including promoting of market principles, fair business climate, in particular for SMEs, and independent regulatory mechanisms, in cooperation with businesses and civil society, including a major reform of the banking and financial sector aiming to combat money laundering and tax evasion;
12. Urges the EU to ensure that DCFTA do not run counter to the imperative for environmental and climate action or initiatives in the European Green Deal;
13. Encourages local and national institutions of Georgia to be represented by a higher number of women, recalling that trade is an important tool for women's economic empowerment, and further progress against all types of discrimination is a necessary step to achieving this;
14. Underlines the importance of transparency and encourages the authorities in further informing the local entrepreneurs and mass media about DCFTA implementation.
