Importance: High

Dear colleagues

Could you please forward this email to the unit/colleagues responsible for this file.

Please find enclosed a cover note signed by Ilze Juhansone 'Launch of a COVID-19 Interservice Consultation on Energy Prices Communication' and the draft communication entitled 'Joint European Action for more affordable, secure and sustainable energy'. The Communication follows on from the Communication on energy prices adopted on 13 October 2021 and aims at providing an update on the outlook of energy prices in the months ahead. It sets out new measures in order to mitigate the impact on European households, businesses and industry as well as to strengthen the preparedness and resilience of the EU energy system for next winter and the time after.

The communication is expected to be adopted on 2 March 2022.

Given the unprecedented nature of the situation this communication seeks to address, the consultation will be carried out as an urgent COVID-19 procedure by email.

Please send your approval or comments to ██████████@ec.europa.eu by 17 February at 17.00.
