
From:

[REDACTED]
@centralbank.ie>

Sent:

Friday 22 March 2019 10:16

To:

Cc:

Subject:

RE: In relation to 165-07.2 Information sharing on altered banknotes presented for exchange at NCBs

Central Bank of Ireland - RESTRICTED

[REDACTED]

I confirm that the images showing the damaged notes have been uploaded to Darwin, of the notes we received they have all had the same appearance in terms of damage.

We have also uploaded all of the serial numbers of the notes received by CBI.

[REDACTED]

If there is anything else you might want for the meeting on this matter please let me know?

Regards

[REDACTED]

[...]

From: [redacted] ecb.europa.eu

Sent: 20 March 2019 11:57

To: [redacted]

Subject: FW: In relation to 165-07.2 Information sharing on altered banknotes presented for exchange at NCBs

[redacted]

As indicated in the note [redacted] we will have an overview of the cases and subfolders with background information.

[redacted]

I would like to ask you to check and update the information in the overview and send us any update as necessary. We understand that in the case of CBI the notes were presented over the counter [redacted].

[redacted] Additionally, we would like to ask both of you for images of the banknotes and other relevant details on the results of the analysis of the banknotes, for saving them in the folder.

We also wonder whether both of you could provide us with some samples of the banknotes, for further analysis. Please let us know.

Thanks and best regards

[redacted]

[redacted]

[redacted]

Any e-mail message from the European Central Bank (ECB) is sent in good faith, but shall neither be binding nor construed as constituting a commitment by the ECB except where provided for in a written agreement. This e-mail is intended only for the use of the recipient(s) named above. Any unauthorised disclosure, use or