Dear Commissioner Breton,

I am writing to request a meeting between yourself and our CEO, Tim Cook, on Tuesday September 26 2023, as part of a visit to Brussels currently being planned.

Tim is due to undertake a number of engagements across the European Union during this week, and would be delighted to meet with yourself, to discuss the EU's priorities and Apple's key investments and operations in Europe. In particular, we would like to share an update on our ongoing contribution to Europe's economy, as well as discuss other areas of shared interest including the future of platform regulation, circular economy and cybersecurity.

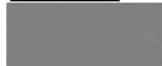

I'm hoping we would be able to arrange a suitable time that will allow for an engaging discussion. My team will be in touch with your office to assess your availability for an in person meeting.

Yours sincerely,

Apple Inc.
