Dear [redacted]
Thanks for the new date offers.
Would these slots suit your side:

- Monday 26 Feb at 16h or at 11h;

- Thu 1 March at 16h30

Please indicate if any/all would be fine; I will then try to see which suits our colleagues.
Best, [redacted]

Dear [redacted],
Thank you for your reply. Then we have to propose the 26/02, the 01/02 or the 02/02.
The week before Mr. Klitz is not in Brussels.
Please let me know if one of these slots works out for you.
Best, [redacted]

Dear Ms [redacted]
Thank you for your message following up on Mr. Klitz's request to meet with Mr Radziejewski. We are glad to have a joint meeting together with the relevant cabinets, however I am afraid the proposed times are difficult. Next week is the Strasbourg plenary and on the following Mr Radziejewski will not be in Brussels, but I am glad to look into later dates.

Kind regards

Dear [redacted],
I hope this e-mail finds you well. Please allow me to come back on my below e-mail request.
I would be happy to receive your feedback soon. Actually the week of the 12 of February seems more feasible for now.

Dear Mr.Radziejewski,
I hope this e-mail finds you well and you had a good start into the New Year.

I am contacting you because Mr. Christof-S. Klitz, Head of Office of the Volkswagen Group, would like to continue our constructive dialogue of the summer, where we met with you and colleagues from other cabinets to discuss about the current state of play at Volkswagen as well as other issues of importance for the automotive industry such as for example Co2 regulation, emission and urban access regulations, electro mobility and connected and autonomous driving.

Mr. Klitz would be very happy to meet with you again and is available for an exchange in the weeks of 6 or 12 of February.
I am looking forward to your reply.

Best regards,
